Chipotle Mexican Grill - Corporate

We aim to do a few things but do them exceptionally well. When Chipotle first Chipotle emphasizes your customer service and teamwork skills, learn to make great food and get ready to grow. Whether you have experience as a cashier, server, cook, prep cook, dishwasher, housekeeper, bartender or no experience at all, this could be the opportunity to develop into a restaurant manager position. We can offer part time or full time schedules depending on what you are looking for and the needs of the restaurant. We promote most of our managers from within and are looking for that next generation of leaders to apply now.

Our Crew members take pride in preparing and serving Chipotle's delicious food. They know that in order to do this right, they need a clean and organized work area. By consistently following the proper recipes and procedures, and adhering to Chipotle's high standards regarding food preparation, cleaning and sanitation, teamwork and customer service, they help to ensure that the Chipotle customer experience is always the best it can be. Crew members get to learn about and work at a variety of stations: Tortilla, Salsa, Prep, Grill, Expo, and Take-Out. In each area they're greeting and interacting with Chipotle's customers directly, making their meals, while portioning out the ingredients to our standards. Crew members' responsibilities require them to be on their feet working while clocked in, unless on break. If they are not busy, they are expected to take on tasks they see that need to get done, and pitch in to help their teammates.

In addition to following Chipotle's policies and procedures, principal responsibilities include, but are not limited to:

Food Prep

- Following recipes accurately and maintaining food preparation processes such as cooking, marinating, seasoning, and grilling meats; chopping herbs; dicing, cutting, and slicing vegetables
- Completing hot and cold food preparation

opened its doors in 1993, the goal was simple: to serve high quality, delicious food quickly with an experience that not only exceeded, but redefined the fast food experience. As a fast-growing company, we're always looking for new people to join our team. Food with Integrity guides our business, including the way we treat our employees. We provide real opportunity for advancement and a fun, exciting work environment.

Position Description

FILING DEADLINE: Continuous/Open until Filled (City of Fresno will accept applications until a sufficient amount of applications have been received, or selection has been made; therefore the recruitment may close at anytime.)

The Fresno Police Department is looking for individuals who have the energy level and commitment to be part of a vigorous law enforcement agency that is continuously striving to take the department to the next level. The selected candidate will be expected to encompass a high level of commitment to public service. The Fresno Police Officer Recruit is the entry level class in the Police series assigned full arrest and citation powers. Under supervision, individuals assist with or may perform law enforcement duties in the protection of life and property. Incumbents receive general and special instructions from supervisors and work under the direct supervision of a training officer during the formal field training program.

The Requirements

These are entrance requirements to the competitive examination and do not assure a place on the eligible list. Applicants must meet the minimum qualifications at the time of application in order to qualify.

TO QUALIFY, an applicant must have the following:

Graduation from a P.O.S.T. approved California Law Enforcement Basic Academy within three years of appointment date; or a lapse of not more than three years since last employment as a peace officer where the minimum qualifications required graduation from a Basic Academy.

Individuals currently attending a P.O.S.T. approved Basic Academy may participate in the examination process but may not be appointed until graduation from the academy.

Applicants MUST attach to their online application a copy of their P.O.S.T certificate of completion, or MUST attach to their online application verification of proof of current attendance at an approved police academy (see instructions below on how to attach). Applicants will not be admitted into the examination without the above documentation.

Possession of a valid California Driver's License at time of application. License must be maintained during the entire term of employment in this job class.

Be a U. S. citizen or a permanent resident alien who is eligible and has applied for citizenship.

Be at least 21 years of age at time of appointment.

As part of the qualifying process for Police Officer Recruit with the City of Fresno, eligible candidates will be required to complete a detailed pre-employment personal history form, followed by a thorough background investigation which will include a polygraph examination.

If candidate receives a conditional employment offer, you will be required to successfully complete a medical examination which will include testing for the presence of drugs and alcohol. Any falsification of information provided or any failure to meet the requirements will result in disqualification from further consideration in the selection process for Police Officer Recruit.

Some of the potential reasons for disqualification from the selection process:

- Use of illegal drugs either recently or extensively.
- Failure to disclose prior drug use.
- Falsification of any required application or pre-employment materials.
- Involvement in a crime, the nature of which would impair the credibility of the individual or cause embarrassment to the City of Fresno.
- Poor employment record.

HOW TO ATTACH YOUR P.O.S.T. CERTIFICATE OR PROOF OF ACADEMY ATTENDANCE:

- Your valid P.O.S.T. certificate or proof of current attendance at an approved P.O.S.T. Basic Academy must be scanned and saved to your computer (save as P.O.S.T. Certificate or Academy Attendance).
- Go to www.fresno.gov/jobs > City of Fresno Jobs > Apply On-Line> Enter Login> choose My Career Tools (located at the top of the page).
- Choose Cover Letters and Attachments.
- Select Add Attachments.
- On Attachment Type drop down choose Reference Attachment and select the Add Attachment link.
- Choose Browse button, you will then be able to attach the saved copy of your P.O.S.T. certificate or proof of current attendance at an approved P.O.S.T. Basic Academy from the location where the document was saved to your computer. Select Upload. Click Save and Return.

Selection Process

The examination process may consist of the following:

PANEL INTERVIEW - 100%: A panel interview will be administered by a panel of officers. The panel of subject matter experts will evaluate a candidate's training, experience, and personal traits for the position of Police Officer Recruit.

Candidates must achieve a passing score on the panel interview to qualify for the eligible list.

Since this recruitment is open on a continuous basis, the examination process may be repeated periodically depending on the number of applicants. As these processes are completed, new candidates will be merged with the current eligible list. Although your score will remain the same through this process, your placement on the eligible list may change.

Eligibles certified to the Police Department for consideration must successfully complete a polygraph test, extensive background investigation, and police department interview before receiving a conditional offer of employment. Individuals receiving a conditional offer of employment must successfully complete a psychological exam and medical exam before receiving a final offer of employment.

Veteran Preference Regulations

Qualified veterans who pass the examination may obtain five (5) additional points. Candidates applying for veteran's preference are required to submit a copy of their DD214 with their application during the specified filing period. Evidence must be presented to indicate that the candidate was discharged honorably from the military service. Veterans, including City employees, must resubmit proof of honorable service for every examination for which veteran's preference credit is requested.

Additional Information

Online applications must be submitted before the recruitment closes or they will not be accepted for any reason. Applicants are encouraged to apply immediately as this recruitment may close at any time.

All correspondence regarding this recruitment and exam process will be sent via email, applicants are responsible for ensuring they note a valid email address in their profile at time of application. It is an applicant's responsibility to check their email on a regular basis to ensure they review such correspondence in a timely manner. All applicants will acknowledge such understanding when they complete their on-line application. Applicants will receive an automatically generated confirmation e-mail upon a successful application submittal. The e-mail is the only proof of submittal.

For information on how to complete an on-line application, please view "Instruction Guide" on the City's website, www.fresno/jobs, or call (559) 621-6950 for assistance. Resumes will not be accepted in lieu of a completed employment application.

Additional Information

Immediate and future vacancies will be filled from this eligible list for a period of six (6) months from the date the eligible list is created. However, the list may be extended pursuant to FMC 3-247.

Should you need a special accommodation due to a qualifying disability, please contact the City of Fresno Personnel Department prior to the date of the applicable examination.

Equal Opportunity Employer

We welcome applicants of any race, gender, religion, ancestry or disability. For more information please refer to our Career Opportunities web page on the City of Fresno web site.
